THE awful accident by which thir-sen persons were yesterday reasted of all the come off as soon as a death on the Chicago and St. Paul teen persons were yesterday reasted to death on the Chicago and St. Paul railroad is a warning to train hands that should not be disregarded. Closer attention in the execution of orders would have made this coul-harrowing story and the awful suffering and turture of the victims impossible. The account which we give on the second page leaves little room to doubt that neglect to close the switch after the freights had been side tracked led to the deplorable result. Railroad men, it tic, 700 on horses in procession shoutshould be said in justice, are as a class ing for Bob and Democracy. J. ESTABLISHED 1840.

THE unveiling of the Bartholdi Statue of L'berty at Bedlow's Island, yesterday, was one of the great events of the century. All that is stately and dignified in human nature was there fittingly and fully exemplified and illustrated. The President and his Cabinet, the chiefs of the army and navy, the dignitaries of New York State and city and the guests from France, with the thousands who were marshaled in the great processions by sea and land and the greater thousands who witnessed the thrilling pageants, made up a right that has seldom been paralleled anywhere at any time. The speaches on the occasion were all of them in good taste and full of the spirit of the hour. The commemorative speech of Mr. Depew being espacially appropriate and quite up to his very high rep. utation as one of the foremost orators of the country.

THE case of shooting by the Pinkerton detectives in Chicago is exciting some attention, and it ought to excite still more. A number of men, gathered by an employer on business principles, as a matter of profit, are marched into a city, and on their own judgment, with no more authority than the passers-by in the street, fire off the rifles with which they are armed, upon a crowd of people That they are unpopular with that crowd, that there is enmity between it and the armed men, disqualifies the latter in a still greater degree from being judges as to whether they shall or | line. shall not kill a number of their fellow beings. If American citizens are to become accustomed to be shot at by a body of men some speculator in means and ways of getting a living has hired, the duration of American liberty will be short. What is the freedom that does not free the citizens from daily fear of their lives? If our citizens will allow their lives to be

THE Episcopal Church Convention before adjourning yesterday, appoint ed a committee to consider the very grave subject of marriage and divorce The frequency with which divorces are applied for and the ease with which they are granted in many if not most of the States, demands the most serious consideration. Whether the church will or not consent men and women will not live together after even incompatibility is a sured. When the woman was regarded as a child, subordinate in mind and body to a master, divorce for one cause only was a logical result, but now when she is regarded as a rational and responsible human being like men subordinate only as she falls below the intellectual standard, the is not to be required to live in a very hell with man merely because she is married. The sacredness of the marriage tie depends upon the mutual forbearance of the husband and wife and the constant nursing of affection, and whenever these are wanting di-vorce is very close to the door. Modern life and modern growth demand that divorce shall be made a serious business by our courts, but that the happiness and future of men and women shall be a primal considera-

Every Democrat in Memphis should be present tonight to greet James Phelan, the unanimously nominated candidate of the party for Congress. He returns to the city after a most vigorous canvass extending over many weeks, during which he addressed large crowds at all the principal points in the district. Cheered by these he comes back hopeful of a triumph that will sgain give the Tenth District to the Democracy and secure another vote in the House of Rapresentatives in support of Cleveland's administration. During his canvass the APPRAL has kept its readers] apprised of Mr. Phelau's progress, and has several times had occasion to express itself gratified at the heartiness of his receptions by the people and the enthusiasm he has everywhere enkindled. At all points he has shown himself to be well and thoroughly equipped, and to be proof especially against the assaults of his opponent. The great questions of the day he has not hesitated to discuss, and in dignified and statesmanlike terms, that prove how conscientious had been the study to which he subjected himself before he offered as a candidate for the people's suffrages. His speech tonight will, we do not hesitate to predict, be worthy of his ambition, and quite satisfy the most auxious of his friends. He will touch upon every tonic as He will touch upon every topic, especially the tariff, the finances and Federal aid to education, and will satisfy his hearers that he is the right man to represent the Tenth District in

Bob, though not so well as yesterday, made a most impressive speech, inspired by the surroundings, stirring Democrats to action and Republicans to reflection. B b was anxious for Pettibone to speak with him, but he did not speak. Why, I don't know. Bob's references to Andrew Johnson, stand-ing here in the shadow of his tomb as it were, were sublimely eloquent, and thousands of tearful eyes told how deeply Andy is enshrined in the hearts of these people, and he touched the responsive chords as with a master Many Republicans said to me that Bob's arraignment of the party was the strongest they had ever heard since Johnson's death, and it had a telling effect upon hundreds of them. and the candidacy of Gillen, made as an Independent Republican for the Senale, will effect his strength. Bob's Senate, will effect his strength. Bob's count after count, as urged in his bill of indictment against the Republican party, was emphasized with such force today as none could resist, and many, it is hoped and believed, will do as Bob advied: "Leave that old stranded wreck and pull for the shore."

silent spectators, rejoicing at the windening chasm, which may possibly result in a complete victory for them. They are better organized by far than they have been for years in the past, and have their best ticket in the field. The Independents have issued circulare, asking and claiming a lien upon the Simon-pure Democrat; in their behalf, while the regular nominees for Senator, Floater and Representative are sanguine of success. Why the nominees have opponents is a ques-tion now agitating the minds of our people. Some attribute it to one cause and some to another.

We hope there is no other county in such a condition as this county, but amid all the rupture we are solid for our Bob and Congressman P. T. Glass. Speculation is high as to which ticket will be the successful one; that is to say, the Independents c'aim they will win, while the nominees have every reason to believe that they will be successful. NEW YORK, October 25, 1886. My DEAR MOR. PRESTON - It has been generally asserted that the Cath-olic clergy of this city are favorably disposed toward the candidacy of Mr. Henry George for Mayor, and are in-clined to support the social and poitical views expressed in his platform. I have grown gray in the church, and am an old friend of yours personally. I therefore ask you to inform me if there be any foundation in fact for the assertion made by Mr. George's supporters. Very faithfully and respectfully yours,

JOSEPH J. O'DONOHUE. To the Rt. Rev. Thomas S. Preston, Vicar General.

NEW YORK, October 27, 1886. MY DEAR O'D NOHUE-In reference to your letter, just received, I can state with confidence that the great majority of the Catholic clergy in this city are opposed to the candidacy of Mr. George. They think his principles uns und and unsafe, and contrary to the teachings of the church. I have not met one among the priests of this arch diocese, who would not deeply regret the election of Mr. George to any position of influence. His principles logically carried out, would prove the ruin of the workingmen he professes to befriend. Whatever be said, I think there is no question as to the position of the Catholic clergy. And although we never interfere directly in elections, we would not wish now to be misunderstood, at a time when the best interests of society may be in danger. Yours very sincerely, THOMAS S. PRESTON.
